Worship & Announcements

Welcome

*So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away;
see, everything has become new!
2 Corinthians 5:17*

Welcome, Guests! If you have questions, members of our Hospitality Team will be glad to assist you. We invite you to fill out one the welcome cards in the pew rack in front of you. You may give it to a member of the Hospitality Team, one of the clergy, or place it in the offering plate. After worship, we invite you to join us for fellowship in our parish hall.

Welcome, Children! There are special liturgy booklets available for you from the Hospitality Team. You will find crayons around the church in the windows.

A Restroom is located outside the doors in the corner of the church that lead directly to the parish house. You will find one in a hallway immediately to the right after exiting the church. This restroom is handicapped accessible. Restrooms are also available in the parish house. After exiting the church, go up the stairs, turn left, and walk all the way around toward the office.

Hard of Hearing? If you need help hearing the service, we have devices for you to use. See a member of the Hospitality Team for assistance.

Accessibility: The church is completely accessible. If you wish to go to the parish house, you will find a lift outside the door leading toward the parish house. This lift will take you to the parish hall and the classroom level. See a member of the Hospitality Team for assistance.

The Holy Eucharist

Please participate with us in worship. This booklet contains most of the liturgy. Hymns not included in the booklet will be found in the Hymnal 1982 (numbers 1-720) and Wonder, Love and Praise (numbers 721 and higher).

The texts for this liturgy are taken from The Book of Common Prayer, Enriching our Worship 1, Intercessions for the Christian People, The New Zealand Prayer Book and the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible.

Although there are customary postures (such as standing and kneeling) in Episcopal worship, you are invited to be seated at any point, according to your needs and comfort.

The Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him. Habakkuk 2:20

We ask that you observe silence after entering in the church, so that those who desire it may pray or listen to the Prelude.

The First Reading

Amos 5:6-7, 10-15

Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it. Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground! They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth. Therefore because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins-- you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time. Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said. Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 90:12-17 (said responsively, dividing at the ★)

- 12 So teach us to number our days ★
that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
- 13 Return, O LORD; how long will you tarry? ★
be gracious to your servants.
- 14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; ★
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
- 15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us ★ and the years in which we suffered adversity.
- 16 Show your servants your works ★
and your splendor to their children.
- 17 May the graciousness of the LORD our God be upon us; ★ prosper the work of our hands; prosper our handiwork.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

The Holy Gospel

Mark 10:17-31

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'" He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible." Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age--houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions--and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

Affirmation of Faith

Celebrant and People

You, O God, are supreme and holy.
You create our world and give us life.
Your purpose overarches everything we do.
You have always been with us.
You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous,
Good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.
You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ,
Who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now.
You are God.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.
You are our God. We worship you.

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Here the intercessor prays for those listed on the Anglican and Diocesan cycle of prayers.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Here the intercessor prays for those in authority, those in our armed forces, and for peacemakers.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Here the intercessor prays for parishioners on our prayer list; please add your own prayers, also.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Here the intercessor prays for those, if any, in whose memory the flowers are given; please add your own prayers, also.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession of Sin

Deacon Let us confess our sins to God.

✠ The people kneel or stand, as they are able.

Deacon and People

God of all mercy,

We confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,

and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love
and serve only your will. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution.

The Peace

✠ The people stand, as they are able.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

✠ The people greet one another in the name of the Lord. Please greet those around you by name. If you do not know their names, please introduce yourself.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant	The Lord is here.
People	God's Spirit is with us.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Here a proper preface is said.

The Celebrant continues

Therefore with people of every nation, tribe and language, with the whole Church on earth and in heaven, joyfully we give you thanks and sing:

Sanctus

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er, God of might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho-san-na in the high-est, ho-
san-na in the high-est.

✠ The people kneel or stand, as they are able.

The Celebrant continues

All glory and honor to you, God of grace, for you gave your only Son Jesus Christ once for all on the cross to be the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

The night before he died, he took bread, and when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup, and when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins; do this as often as you drink it, to remember me.

Therefore O God of all creation, in this sacrament of the suffering and death of your Son, we now celebrate the wonder of your grace and proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Christ has died,
Christ is risen.
Christ will come in glory.

Redeemer God, rich in mercy, infinite in goodness, we were far off until you brought us near and our hands are empty until you fill them. As we eat this bread and drink this wine, through the power of your Holy Spirit feed us with your heavenly food, renew us in your service, unite us in Christ, and bring us to your everlasting kingdom.

O the depths and riches of your wisdom, O God; how unsearchable are your judgments and untraceable your ways. From you and through you and for you are all things.

People To you be glory for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

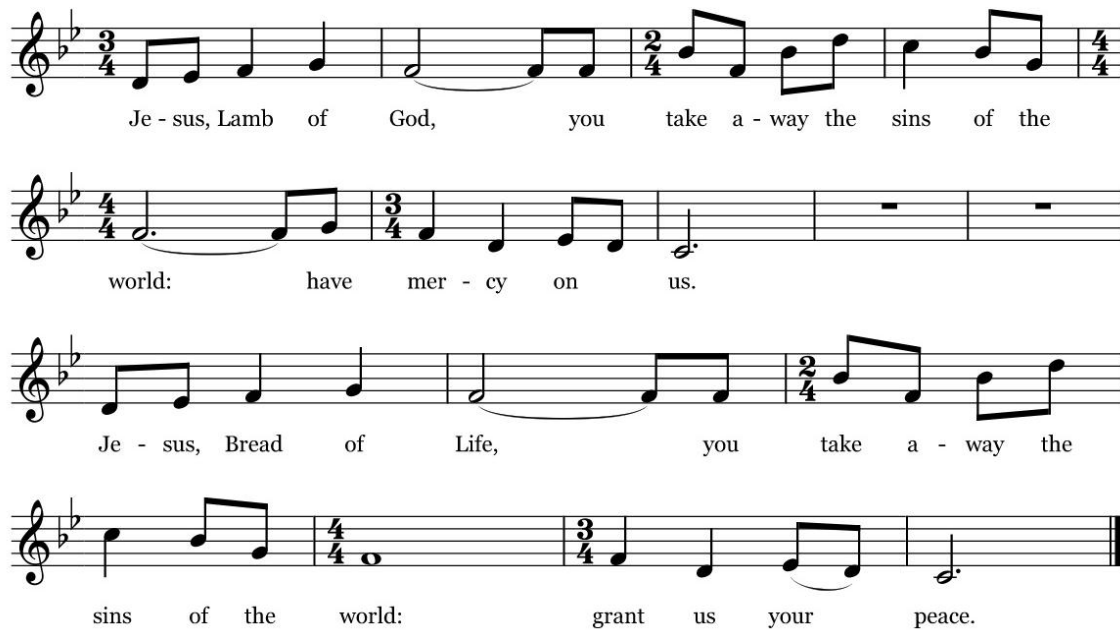

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

An Invitation to Communion and Healing: Instructions Concerning our Customs

✘ All are invited to receive Holy Communion. As you approach the altar from the center aisle, please go to the first available place at the altar rail beginning at the center and then out to the sides. The bread is received in the open palm. The wine, if desired, may be taken from the common cup by drinking (placing your hand gently on the base of the chalice to guide it). You may also receive by intinction, dipping the bread into the wine. Please be careful not to put your fingers in the wine. If you do not wish to receive from the chalice at all, please cross your arms over your chest. Even if not receiving the wine, please do not leave the altar rail until the chalice passes you.

✘ Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

✘ Healing Prayer is offered during the Communion portion of worship. You are invited to come to the healing station before or after you receive Communion. At the healing station you can tell the healing minister of some concern for which you want prayer; however you don't have to say anything. You can be an intercessor and ask for prayers for others. You can stand or use the kneelers. The healing ministers normally put oil on your forehead but sometimes a person's hands can be anointed. People who come for healing have a variety of experiences. Some feel a warming or tingling sensation or some other physical sensation; some hear the minister speak in a (prayer) language; some have no physical sensations, but experience a deep peace. You may feel that something has happened or you may not. Healing, in whatever form, often occurs later. Healing is a sacramental act, an outward and visible sign of the interior work of the Holy Spirit. This means that you can be assured that God will do what's best for you.

The Post Communion Prayer

✠ After Communion, the Celebrant says
Let us pray.

✠ The people kneel or stand, as they are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God who calls us together.
People Praise to God who makes us one people.

Celebrant Blessed be God who has forgiven our sin.
People Praise to God who gives hope and freedom.

Celebrant Blessed be God whose Word is proclaimed.
People Praise to God who is revealed as love.

Celebrant Blessed be God who alone has called us.
People Therefore we offer all that we are and all that we shall become.

Celebrant Accept, O God, our sacrifice of praise.
People Accept our thanks for all you have done.
Our hands were empty, and you filled them. Amen.

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Postlude: All Glory Be to God on High Johann Pachelbel

The worship is over. ✠ The service begins.

So here's what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering.
Romans 12:1 (Eugene Peterson, The Message)

The Altar Flowers today are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Schuyler Stewart by his family, Sally Stewart Fellows and Jim Fellows.

PARISH NEWS

Rummage Sale: October 19 & 20 Reaching out to Serve the Community

CHRIST CHURCH RUMMAGE has been serving the needs of the Exeter area community for over 60 years providing necessary clothing and other goods that many families could not afford otherwise. Sign up today to be part of this vital ministry. We need approximately 40 people over the course of the week (Oct. 14-20) willing to put in 1- 4 hours per person (please sign up ASAP).

This is a great opportunity to work together as a family and teach kids as young as grade school the importance of serving others in Christ's name. Meet and build relationships with other folks in the congregation so they can know the strength and presence of God's love.

To help you can call or Mario Izzo at 603-770-9396 or email mbi1220@gmail.com you can also contact Linda Plumer at 603-502-0010 or email lcplumer@aol.com.

DON'T BUY YOUR FALL PUMPKINS YET! The Youth Group will be selling pumpkins at the Rummage Sale to help raise money for their Fall Retreat. So please, hang on for a few more days, and buy your pumpkins at the Rummage Sale -- make your home look great AND help the youth: it'll be a double play! (Does that have something to do with baseball?)

BIG NIGHT OF HOPE

October 20th from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. What is it? It's an ecumenical gathering of junior high and high school students from the surrounding Exeter Area with some interactive, team-building, and role-playing games that help us experience what it's like to be a refugee. We'll learn how the Crop Walk and our churches are helping those in need, and we will end with a brief worship service. It is going to be BIG, FUN and if not eye-opening, then heart-opening.

To Register for Big Night of Hope, please go to this free website, and enter your name and email address:

www.SignUpGenius.com/go/20F054EA9A72CA20-bignight/5655604

Then remember to bring $5 for each person coming. See you there!

Christ Church's Annual Stewardship Campaign continues through November 18th!

We need the participation of every household to reach our goal of fully supporting the ministries of Christ Church in 2013.

Thank you, in advance, for your support.

To date we have received 30 pledges totaling $78,878.00.

Our goal is to receive 200 pledges totaling $380,000.

To make your 2013 pledge today, pick up your pledge form in the narthex today or go to www.christchurchexeter.org and click on "give to Christ Church" in the left margin of the homepage.

ADULT FORUMS: Today we'll lend a hand to Mario and the Rummage Team, helping as needed- This is such an important part of Christ Church's outreach effort – come and help!

Next week Matt and the Youth will report on what they did and learned at the Big Night of Hope.

THE 2012 CROP WALK will held on October 21st starting at Christ Church. The walk starts at 1:00 pm. Please get there early to register. All are welcome to this fun afternoon. The walk is free, however, you may make a donation if you wish. Last year we had almost 125 walkers. If you have questions please call Eric LaMontagne at 895-1455.

PLEASE HELP: We are always looking for people to join our teams to help host or serve dinner for the Seacoast Family Promise program (formerly IHN). Please contact Linda at the church office or myself at 580-5363 or cell 207-232-1590. I am also in desperate need of a co-coordinator for this program to help me organize the week we host. Our next host week is October 28-Nov. 4.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE to jump into Junior Choir or Youth Choir! We would love to have more singers!!! Here are the details:

- Grades 3, 4, and 5: Junior Choir...speak with Juliette Gavin
- Grades 6, 7, and 8: Youth Choir...speak with Cathy Hammon

Both groups meet directly after school on Wednesdays. Jr. Choir starts out upstairs in the kitchen and Youth Choir starts out downstairs in the youth room. Join in the fun and fellowship that these two groups have to offer while at the same time, working towards providing beautiful, fun, and spiritual music to our Sunday morning worship!!!

NEW ON THE WEBSITE: We have added three new features to the Christ Church website – audio files of Sunday morning sermons, weekly bulletin announcements and adult forum topics for the current and next month. All three can be found at www.christchurchexeter.org under the “Events and Information” tab at the top of the webpage. We invite you to take a look, and hope these features will help you stay connected when you are away! Many thanks to Randy Helm for his management of the site and for keeping it updated on a weekly basis!!

YOUTH GROUP NEWS: NEW Start Time for Senior High Compline and Community of 6:30 pm: That's right folks, we're now starting at 6:30 pm on Sunday nights instead of 7. We'll still wrap up by 8:30, but bring your students over for sharing, community, meaningful discussion, and candlelight compline service to start the week.

SAFE CHURCH TRAINING [education for the prevention of child abuse, exploitation and harassment] will take place in Concord at St. Paul's Church on the following date: Refresher Training: 9AM- 3PM, Sat. Nov. 3, 2012.

Anyone who works with children, youth, or the elderly in our parish, volunteers with Seacoast Family Promise (IHN) as evening or overnight hosts or makes pastoral visits to parishioners is required to have this training.

Anyone attending this session must provide the following information to the safe church minister prior to the Monday preceding the session:

First and last name, Status [why you need the training], Phone number and email address.

You may want to bring a small lunch to have during the noon break in the training.

Anyone needing help with this process or anyone having questions may contact Steve Armstrong, Safe Church Minister, at (603) 772-3082, or at sandba@comcast.net.

PRAYER INTENTIONS CROSS: The Prayer Intentions Cross is here for you. When there is a concern in your heart or a message of praise or thanksgiving that you would like to have "lifted up", write it on one of the provided papers, fold it, staple it and roll it into one of the felt covers. Place it in any tube you desire. These messages will be acknowledged during the "Prayers of the People" each week and will eventually be incorporated into a "Prayer Flag" to be hung in the Memorial Garden. Please add your intentions as often as you are led.
