Picture Planes - New Hampshire, Sept. 16 to Oct. 15

"Picture Planes ~ New Hampshire," the fall exhibit at the Alva deMars Megan Chapel Art Center, opens with a reception Thursday, Sept. 15, from 6 to 8 p.m. The exhibition will run from Friday, Sept. 16, through Saturday, Oct. 15.

New Hampshire art and artists enjoy a special focus in this show of two-dimensional works, revealing a marvelous variety of New Hampshire-inspired states of mind. The exhibit will include works by Ben Frank Moss, Paul Wainwright, John C. Traynor, Stephen Hodecker and, from McGowan Fine Art in Concord, N.H., Catherine Tuttle, Kathleen Welker, Elizabeth Mayor and Amparo Carvajal Hufschmid.

With this show, the gallery joins The New Hampshire Visual Arts Coalition and 25 other New Hampshire galleries and museums in a statewide celebration of New Hampshire art.

Picture Planes ~ New Hampshire extends the idea of a picture plane beyond the common understanding. To picture is not only to paint, but to imagine. And a plane is a paradox, a flat surface for majestic heights and deep poetic drama.

In keeping with the theme, Chapel Art also will host "The Night of the Poet," Thursday, Sept. 22, at 7 p.m., with readings by New Hampshire poets Nancy K. Paquin and Gary Bouchard, English professor at Saint Anselm. A reception will follow.

The Chapel Art Center at Saint Anselm College is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Thursdays until 9 p.m.
